Mrs. Brann/Mrs. Hannon

November 28, 2016

Hopefully you all had a nice Thanksgiving holiday! We have about three and a half weeks of learning before Winter Break. Our Social Studies learning this month will be learning about different holidays that are celebrated in the month of December.

Stop Hunger Now! Thanks for participating in this great event. Lots of students brought in money to support this organization and we had the most participants at the actual event! Way to go!

Dates

Friday, 12/2

- Wear RED for Integrity
- Fall Picture Make Up Day (if you were absent or want a retake)
- Early Release 12:30 dismissal
- Scholastic book orders/money are due to Mrs. Brann or online

December Holidays

So...I only heard from 3 of you about the holidays you celebrate in December. Therefore, I am assuming that all of you celebrate Christmas. Please let me know if this is NOT the case. Do any of you celebrate Hanukkah? Kwanzaa? Diwali?

Scholastic Books

Before Thanksgiving, your child brought home a Scholastic book coupon. If you spend $10, your child can get a free book with their coupon. They were VERY excited about this coupon! Orders are due this Friday so we can get the books before Winter Break. There are some great titles and prices in the flyers I sent home.
