Mrs. Brann/Mrs. Coakley

February 27, 2017

We are still working on our science unit on Weather. We will be learning about different kinds of weather, cloud coverage, and what meteorologists do at work. If you have any connections to meteorologists please let us know.

We are almost finished with our current math unit. We have focused on teen numbers (recognizing and writing correctly) and making ten (given a number, tell how many more are needed to make ten), and "part/part/whole" (2 and 3 make 5). Please make sure your child practices at home as well.

Don't forget to practice counting to 70, starting with 1 and with random numbers.
